CENSUS DEPARTMENT.

(All Census correspondence should be treated as 'Urgent.')

OFFICE OF THE CENSUS SUPERINTENDENT IN MYSORE.

Circular No. 28—Census 1911, dated Bangalore, the 2nd November 1910.

From—The Census Superintendent in Mysore.
To—The Deputy Commissioners of Districts.

SIR,

I have the honor to invite your reference to the instruction contained in para Section IV and para 11 of Section V of the Census Procedure Code and to commu the following supplementary instructions on the subject of the Census of the Jail Lockups :—

Under instructions contained in those paragraphs, these Institutions should be num ed as so many ordinary buildings and constituted into separate blocks.

2. For purposes of the Census, the term "Jail Population" will be taken to inc all Convicts and Under-trial and Civil Prisoners, and also all Jail Officers with the per living with them who reside, i. e., take meals and sleep, within the precincts of the Jail does not include the Police on duty as Jail guards or Jail Officers who reside outside Jail limits, as these will be enumerated as being present in their houses. (Vide para 8 of procedure in Section VI, Census Procedure Code.)

3. The enumeration of the Jail population should be entrusted, subject to your gen supervision, to the Officer in charge of the Jail, one of the officials employed in the being formally appointed as enumerator in communication with the Officer in charge of Jail. All Forms necessary for the Census of the Jails and Lockups should be supplied f your reserve.

4. In order that there may be as few changes as possible between the Preliminar Record and the Final Census, the Preliminary Enumeration will be commenced on the March 1911 and completed by the 5th idem. Prisoners who will be released before the March should not be entered in the Preliminary Record.

5. In the occupation column of the Schedule, Prisoners should be shown as victs, Under-trial or Civil Prisoners. It is unnecessary to record the work on which are employed while in Jail; nor should the occupation which they are said to have before incarceration be entered in the Schedule.

6. The Final Enumeration should be commenced at lock-up time on the 10th Every Prisoner should be called by his name as he enters his sleeping ward, and the his entry in the Enumeration Book verified. Prisoners received after the Prelim Enumeration should be entered, and those no longer present should be struck out. all the Prisoners have been dealth with, the final Census of the Jail Officials and families should be taken.

7. After the Final Enumeration is completed, the Enumerator will serially the entries, prepare the Enumerator's Abstract and finally hand over the Book to the visor of the Circle in the manner laid down in para 6 and 7, Section VIII of the Procedure Code. In these circumstances, the last four lines beginning with "the Enumerator will merely" and ending with "Schedules" in para 11 of Section V Procedure Code, will be deleted. A separate Correction Slip will also be issued point.

I have the honor to be,
